RAILWAY ACCIDENTS

Several Different Roads Involved.

PEOPLE KILLED AND INJURED.

Passenger Coach Hurled Over a Forty Foot Embankment—Eleven Persons Injured—Street Car Struck by a Train in Chicago—Other Railroad Disasters.

NASHVILLE, June 3.—The rear coach on the Nashville, Chattanooga & St. Louis road jumped the track at 6:40 a.m., a short distance out of town, and rolled down an embankment 40 feet high. Of the 11 passengers in the coach, all were injured.

They are Mrs. Susan Sephans, Nashville, dangerously bruised about the body and head; Mrs. M. L. Douglass, Chester, S. C., badly bruised; Mrs. Nixie Washon, Marianna, Ark., leg and face cut; J. L. Spurlock, Vienna, Cherokee Nation, badly bruised; J. S. Maroney, Murphy, N. C., head and back injured; Mrs. Loadith and infant, Nowata, I. T., the former cut about the head, the latter bruised; Mrs. Kullingsworth, Alvord, Tex., face cut and back injured; J. B. Freeman, Harold, Tex., head and hip injured; A. S. Horn, Nashville, head and back bruised; John H. Perry, Memphis, bruised and hand cut; J. D. Graves, Alvord, Tex., head cut.

The accident was caused by the recent rains, which have rendered the track unsteady.

HIT A HORSE CAR.

Passenger Train Kills One Person and Injures Three Others.

CHICAGO, June 3.—A horse car of the Chicago City Railway line going east on 69th street at 6:30 yesterday evening was struck by a Rock Island passenger train. One occupant of the street car was instantly killed and three seriously hurt.

The dead are: Unknown woman, about 25 years of age.

The injured are: F. G. Bull, 1712 Wellington avenue, two ribs broken and internally hurt.

Clara Ellis, No. 7125 Eggleston avenue, both arms broken.

Edward Fitzgerald, driver of street car, internal injuries.

The accident is said to have been due to the negligence of the gatekeeper at the crossing, W. D. Denomad, who failed to lower the gate on the approach of the train. The car carried but six passengers. While the car was crossing the track the driver saw the approaching train and whipped up his horses in his effort to get away. The passengers on the streetcar saw the danger and rushed for the rear end to make their escape. Before they could do this the engine struck the rear end of the car. The sudden jolt threw a lady passenger directly in front of the engine, and in an instant she was ground to a shapeless mass beneath the wheels. Assistance was soon at hand and the unfortunate passengers were rescued from the wreck and then taken to a barn close by, where their wounds were dressed.

WASHOUTS IN SOUTH CAROLINA.

Two Men Killed in a Wreck on the Richmond and Danville.

COLUMBIA, S. C., June 3.—A furious rainstorm generally prevailed throughout the state Friday night and washouts are reported on different lines of railroads.

Mixed train No. 9, coming south on the Richmond and Danville railroad, when within three miles south of Ridgeway, ran into a washout about 100 feet wide, and Engineer Jack Germany and Fireman A. D. Henry were instantly killed.

The train was badly wrecked, going down an embankment 20 feet. Express Messenger W. W. Holmes, who is badly bruised, is the only person hurt.

Struck an Open Switch.

LIMA, O., June 3.—East-bound passenger train No. 2, due at 7:40 on the L. E. & W. Road, met with a bad accident west of Frankfort. The train was running at the speed of 25 miles an hour, when the engine struck an open switch. The engine went into the ditch, and, although imbedded several feet in the mud, it was not overturned, the baggage car was laid over on its side, and the smoker completely derailed before the train stopped. Fortunately no one was injured.

TERRIFIC STORM.

Twelve Inches of Rain and Fifteen Inches of Hail.

LIMA, O., June 3.—A terrific rain and hail storm passed over the southwestern part of this section of the state. The storm was the worst ever known. It lasted only 45 minutes, but completely flooded the country. The rain and hail came down in torrents, and 12 inches of rain fell.

A few miles east of North Star hail fell to the depth of 15 inches. The wind did great damage to fruit trees and fences. A limb from a large tree was blown through Alick Alexander's house. In other parts of the country hail fell to the depth of 10 inches, the pellets being as large as walnuts. The hail was followed by one of the hardest rains in years. The hail did a great deal of damage to wheat, grass and trees, and the gardens are about ruined.

SAANTONIO, Tex., June 3.—Maximo Martinez, the Mexican who lived at San Ignacio and directed the party of revolutionists which sacked the town and murdered his neighbors, was sentenced in the United States court yesterday to three years in the penitentiary for violating the neutrality laws.

TRYING TO SAVE VAN LOON.
An Effort Being Made to Fasten the Crime
Upon Bill Roach.

COLUMBUS, O., June 3.—Another sensation in the Van Loon case is promised. This time it will come in the shape of an effort to establish the entire innocence of Van Loon and fasten it upon Bill Roach, the man who was first identified by the cashier of the Columbus Grove bank as the one who shot him and killed Farmer Vandemerck.

It transpires that Van Loon's family have had a detective following Roach for a long time, and the detective states that Roach wrote the letters sent to Governor McKinley from Birmingham, Ala., signed "Legend of Hell," which insisted that Van Loon was innocent. Roach is now under arrest at Marion. It is said that a woman with whom he formerly lived has made a written declaration that Roach confessed to her that he, and not Van Loon, did the Columbus Grove job.

A peculiar circumstance and one that caused some embarrassment during the trial is that the murderer was evidently a left-handed man, while Van Loon is right-handed. The shooting was done with the left hand. Roach is left handed. These things have all been reduced to writing and will be submitted to the governor in a few days.

THE PEARY EXPEDITION.

The Arctic Explorer Will Start on Another Trip Shortly.

PHILADELPHIA, June 3.—Despite the report that his leave of absence was to be revoked by Secretary Herbert, Lieutenant Peary, the intrepid Arctic explorer is busily engaged in completing his preparations for his next trip, upon which he expects to start within 15 days. He is now at St. John's, N. F., but is expected here in a day or two.

The trip is to be made under the auspices of the Geographical club of Philadelphia, which has furnished $10,000, or one-half of the estimated expenses, and will receive in return whatever collections of scientific value may be made. Mrs. Peary will again accompany her husband on the expedition.

PORK IN MEXICO.

A Decree Which Prohibits Slaughtered Hogs From Being Imported.

CITY OF MEXICO, June 3.—A decree that will prove of great interest to the slaughtering establishments of Kansas City, St. Louis and Chicago has just been issued by President Diaz. The decree peremptorily forbids the shipment of slaughtered hogs in the City of Mexico. Hereafter all hogs for shipment must be brought in alive. This action was taken in view of the fact that in the case of alleged fresh pork shipped here from the United States and points in Mexico it is not always possible to decide whether or not the animal died of some disease or was in a healthy condition when slaughtered.

UNKNOWN MAN KILLED.

DUNKIRK, O., June 3.—Section men on the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago railroad found a man lying beside the track one mile west of town. The supposition is that he fell from a freight train. His skull was fractured and his back injured, and he was in a dying condition. Nothing was found on his person to identify him. A thimble, needles and chalk were found in his pockets. He weighed about 140 pounds, height 5 feet 7 inches, and he was badly marked by smallpox. He wore a dark grey coat, pants and vest a shade lighter, and new shoes. He appeared to be Irish.

WOMAN MYSTERIOUSLY MISSING.

ADA, O., June 3.—A great sensation has been created here over the disappearance of Mrs. A. W. Clutter, wife of Photographer Clutter of this place. Mr. Clutter retired, and about 10:30 his wife came to his room, kissed him and their two children, and then left the house. A few minutes afterward Mr. Clutter became alarmed, and made a search for her, which he continued through the night. Early in the morning the fire alarm was sounded, and a general search was instituted, but no trace of her has been found. It is feared she has drowned herself in one of the streams near here.

PERMITTED TO GO FREE.

WASHINGTON, June 3.—Ishmael B. Silas, son of the secretary of war of Mexico, who was arrested in this city yesterday on a charge of obtaining money under false pretenses, has been permitted to go free, the case against him having been dismissed. It is said that Silas' father remitted to the Mexican minister money sufficient to liquidate all claims against the son, and that he had been notified to return home at once. Young Silas has been attending the Georgetown law school for the past two years.

A YOUNG HOUSE BREAKER PUT AWAY.

BRAZIL, June 3.—Walter McClelland, the young house breaker, was arraigned in the circuit court and sentenced for four years. McClelland has always borne a good reputation, but he was caught robbing Mrs. Evans' boarding house. He confessed to burglarizing the residences of Mack Nees, Nicholas Schetterman, County Recorder Gilfillen, Dr. Smith and others.

JEFFERSON DAVIS' SON REBURIED.

RICHMOND, June 3.—The remains of Joseph William Henry and Samuel Emery Davis, sons of the late president of the Confederacy, and his grandson, Jefferson Davis Hayes, were reinterred in the Davis section at Hollywood yesterday evening. There was no funeral ceremony.

SHOT BY AN INSANE MAN.

INDIANAPOLIS, June 3.—Ed Miller, colored, fatally shot John Mackey, white. Miller's shanty burned, and this so enraged him that he rushed into a crowd and shot the first man he saw.

REVIEW OF TRADE.

R. G. Dun & Company's Weekly Report.

BUSINESS NOT IMPROVING.

Disheartening Conditions Have Prevailed All Week—Money Market Closer Which Affects Manufacturing—Gold Still Going Out in Large Amounts—Uncertainty For the Future.

NEW YORK, June 3.—R. G. Dun and Company's weekly review of trade says More disheartening conditions have prevailed during the past week, and those who saw the beginning of permanent recovery in the better tone a week ago are disappointed. The money markets have been closer, especially in the interior, and manufacturing and trade are more affected than before.

Some important failures have occurred, including one bank at Milwaukee. Gold has gone out again in large amounts, exports for this week being about $5,000,000, and the treasury gold reserve has been drawn down to about $90,000,000. In nearly all departments of trade uncertainty about the future has a depressing influence which is now clearly perceived in decrease on new business, and while most manufacturing works are yet employed on full orders, as these run out the number of works closed increases.

Boston reports disappointing trade in dry goods not equal to expectations. Orders for boots and shoes are slow, and some factories are closed. The wool market is quiet and unsatisfactory, but lumber is in good demand.

Philadelphia reports much disturbance in iron, a fair but waiting market for dry goods, and quiet trade in other respects, with much complaint of collections in all branches.

At Baltimore tight money is felt, exports are low, and trade in dry goods, clothing and shoes is quiet, and in paints and glass low for the season. Canneries bus.

Trade at Cleveland is fairly good and collections slightly improved, though money is close.

The iron trade at Pittsburgh is less encouraging; pig is weaker and finished iron very low in price with weaker tendency.

The shoe trade at Cincinnati is better, in machinery there is fair business, but general trade shows little improvement and collections are slow.

At Indianapolis trade is good in groceries and better in other lines, but collections are unsatisfactory.

At Detroit money is close, vessel rates low and trade, though fair in volume, is at very low prices.

Chicago reports increased receipts in sheep 30 per cent, corn 36, oats 40 and wheat 175 per cent, but decrease in all other articles, especially in animal products. Clearings are lower, real estate transactions 40 per cent smaller than last year, and collections show no improvement. Credits being curtailed and some manufacturers restricted by lack of accommodations. Wheat is quoted an eighth below the lowest price for 30 years.

The failure of one bank at Milwaukee causes some excitement, though general trade was satisfactory and collections improving.

Trade is fair at St. Paul, though collections are slow and money close.

St. Louis reports satisfactory trade with very fair collections, cotton and corn moving liberally, but loans are curtailed to the minimum, and there is no market for local securities, save at buyers prices.

At Kansas City trade is fairly satisfactory, but receipts moderate and money close.

Omaha reports good trade, and Denver only fair, with collections slow.

At Little Rock trade is dull with collections slow, and at Knoxville no improvement.

Atlanta reports trade close money and slow collections. Augusta slight improvement in trade with improved farm prospects but tight money and slow collections.

At New Orleans business is only fair, but building materials are very active and crop prospects, though backward, are promising.

Speculative markets have been sinking. Stocks are nearly $2 per share lower than a week ago, the failures, the ill-success of the world's fair and the slump in wheat affecting prices, as well as the outgo of gold. Wheat has declined 1 3/4 cents, corn 2 1/2 and oats 1 1/2, with moderate transactions, few caring to buy wheat with enormous stocks in sight. Lard and hogs are lower, and cotton has declined a sixteenth, with moderate sales, though receipts are small. The market for tin was overloaded and fell 4 cents, and coffee is weaker, with reported sales below 11 cents, though lead is higher and coal more active.

Uncertainty about freights, labor, crops and finances make the iron trade gloomy. Prospects of trouble with the Amalgamated association sustains the present demand for finished products, and higher freight rates raise prices of pig, not to the advantage of sellers. Structural mills are yet well employed, but at prices which return scanty profits. In the shoe trade fewer orders are seen for the fall trade, though shipments are still large.

In men's woolens commission merchants are in trouble with clothiers, who throw back goods ordered apparently to get them at lower prices, and little is doing in spring goods. The demand for fancy worsteds is better, and the dress goods market, though very sick for some weeks past, is stronger. Export of products still fall below last year's in value, and there is much withdrawal of money loaned in this country on foreign account. The fact that $5,000,000 of such loans mature within the next week leads to the expectations of further exports of gold. Money on call here has somewhat advanced, but there is strong complaint of difficulty in getting commercial loans.

Failures during the past week have been 238 in the United States against 150 last year, and 21 in Canada against 32 last year. Last week the total number of failures was 273.

CENTRAL AMERICAN HARSHIPS.

The Pitiful Tale of a Swede's Experience on a Plantation.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., June 3.—Almost a mental and physical wreck from sickness and privation, a Swede named Gustave Loekroen returned to this city and was immediately sent to the city hospital for treatment. He tells a pitiful tale of his experiences. A little over a year ago he went to Central America, and at a place called Livingstone was given employment on a banana plantation. He was made to work there steadily from early morning to late at night. Food was scarce and what there was of it was unfit to eat. Soon he took sick with malarial fever and was seldom free from it. Although often incapacitated by the sickness, he was compelled to work in the sun on the plantation. He soon found that he could make no money. He was only given his board for the work that he did. He saw that he was rapidly drifting from bad to worse, and he decided to leave the plantation. He packed a few clothes in a blanket and tied it with a rope. This bundle he slung over his back and set out for Mexico. For days he walked in the hot sun without seeing a man or house. At the end of three months he reached Mexico, almost unable to walk. He spent a few weeks with some countrymen in the state of Chiapas, Mexico, and then continued his overland journey to this city, making the total distance of 2,500 miles from Central America in about six months.

AFTER MANY YEARS

Clara Simpson Has Found Her Father, Who Deserted Her.

LOUISVILLE, June 3.—After years of searching, a little girl who has spent nearly all her life in the house of refuge has found her father. Eighteen years ago George Simpson and his two infant daughters, Clara and Florence, lived in this city, his wife having died. Simpson was penniless and could get no employment. One morning he opened his house, and called one of the neighbors to watch the children for a few moments, and then disappeared. Nothing was heard of him until yesterday.

The girls were sent to the house of refuge and grew up there. Florence is now assistant matron at a reform school in Chehalis, Wash., and her sister has a place in the school here. Since she has been grown she has spent a great deal of time trying to find her father. One day last week the chief of police of New Orleans succeeded in locating him in that city. At once the father wrote to his daughter, sending her a ticket and asking her to go to him. The girl will leave, but as her father has married again, she will not give up her place here. Mr. Caldwell and the officers of the institution have a very high regard for her and are preparing to give her a substantial testimonial of their esteem.

A NEWSPAPER EXPERIMENT.

The New York Herald to Issue Republican and Democratic Editions.

NEW YORK, June 3.—During the recent congress in Chicago of the press men and women of the world, a paper was presented by Hon. J. A. Steicher, editor-in-chief of The Mail and Express suggesting that prominent newspapers should issue both Republican and Democratic editions, giving the news of each political party in the edition assigned to that party, and also conducting the editorial page in the same manner.

This suggestion, which was vigorously discussed at the congress as a decidedly novel innovation, is, it is said, to be experimented upon in this city. According to reports in Newspaper Row, the New York Herald, after it is installed in its new home, may issue Republican and Democratic editions.

The evening adjunct of The Herald—The Telegram—is independent in politics, and consequently, if the scheme is carried into effect, the novel spectacle will be witnessed of a Republican, a Democratic and an independent newspaper issuing from under the same roof and controlled by the same general management.

A MONEY CRISIS

Has Been Brought About in Indian Territory—No Credit.

TAHLEQUAH, I. T., June 3.—The failure to raise $6,500,000 on the Cherokee strip bonds has caused a commercial crisis in the territory.

J. W. Stapler & Son, who have been the principal traders in the strip fund, at once discontinued credit sales. Their action was immediately followed by nearly all the general merchants of the place, and now no goods are sold on the strip money.

At Fort Gibson, Vinita, Muskogee, Wagoner, Webber's Falls, Claremore and at many other points the same results followed, and not a dollar's worth of goods can be purchased on credit

WEATHER INDICATIONS.

Fair weather, followed in the evening by showers; cooler in Southern Ohio; winds shifting to southeast.

It looks as though the hustling cyclone had transferred its base of operations from the Northwest to the more congenial climes of Mississippi and Georgia.

CANDIDATES for the various county offices in Fleming are thick, and are growing more numerous each day. The fight is lively and will be a prolonged one as the election does not come off until November, 1894.

THE news from Washington is that Secretary Carlisle has hit upon a scheme by which the restoration of gold is to be accomplished. It is strictly within the letter of the law and in simplicity, it is said, will astonish many so-called financiers. This will be unwelcome news for those who are fighting to compel the Government to issue bonds.

THE LEGISLATURE.

Dr. Frazee Wants to Adjourn Sine Die June 22—Other Matters of Interest.

Dr. Frazee introduced a resolution in the House Thursday to adjourn sine die June 22.

Bass, of Todd, introduced a resolution to amend the revenue and taxation law so as to postpone the time for final settlement of Sheriffs from December 1 to February 1; also postponing the date of the 6 per cent penalty from November 1 to December 1, 1893. Referred to the Committee on Taxation.

Mr. Pettit's drainage bill was ordered to a second reading.

The Judiciary Committee reported a chapter on turnpike, plank and gravel roads.

In the Senate, Senate bill 249, requiring all foreign corporations operating in this State to take out articles of incorporation, was ordered to be reported to the House.

The Committee on General Statutes reported adversely the bill exempting from execution $100 of wages of all persons with a family who work for wages, and it was refused a third reading.

The Committee on the Penitentiary and House of Reform reported House bill 490, appropriating money for building and repairing shops in the State Prison at Frankfort, and it was passed, with an amendment authorizing the employment of convict labor.

The conference report on the bill relating to evidence was adopted and the bill was passed.

The Senate refused to concur in the House amendments to the Senatorial redistricting bill.

Another disgraceful scene was enacted Thursday, this time in the Senate. Several Senators refused to vote when the roll was called upon the final passage of the bill relating to charitable institutions, which included the amendment abolishing the Feeble-Minded Institute. Senators Roberts of Madison and Board of Scott, were standing inside the Senate Chamber by the cloakroom door.

"Do you believe in the Constitution?" "Yes," replied Board, "what of it?"

"Then why don't you act like it and vote?" said Roberts.

"You d— old fool, you don't know anything about the Constitution or about what you are talking," said Board.

"You are a d— liar," said Roberts.

"You can't say that to me in the cloakroom," said Board.

Now I'm in the cloakroom," said Roberts, advancing a step forward. "Come on."

Board started at him, but was grabbed by brother Senators and held until cool.

Breeders, Read This.

The get of Happy Medium, No. 400, won more money in 1892 than the get of any other trotter in the world. He is also the sire of Nancy Hanks 2:04, the fastest on earth. He has sired ten in the list below 2:20, and sired thirty-four below 2:25. No horse except Electioneer can approach this.

Ptolemy 5179 is one of the very best bred sons of Happy Medium and Mambrino Patchen. He is 16 hands high, is a beautiful bay; sires all large bay colts, out of any color, and they are as fine as silk. He is owned by H. A. Calvert, Tuckahoe, Ky., and stands at $25 to insure a living colt.

PERSONAL.

Senator Wall came in from Frankfort last evening.

Mrs. J. W. Fitzgerald has been visiting her parents at Augusta this week.

Mrs. A. W. Morgan and children left yesterday to join her husband at Minonk, Ill.

Mr. Wm. Oldham, of Denver, is here on a visit, after an absence of several years.

Mrs. William Simpson and son, of Cleveland, O., are guests of Mr. James Simpson and family.

Mr. Charles Forman, an attorney at New Orleans, is visiting at Washington. He has recently returned from a trip to New Mexico.

Mr. Louis Marshall returned this week from a visit to his brother in Southern Illinois, and reports very rainy and backward weather there.

Mrs. Nelson, of Maysville, sister-in-law of Mrs. Lee Mannen, after a pleasant visit at her home, has returned.—Covington Commonwealth.

Well Provided With "Spondulics."

William Franklin Steward Somerville is the name given by a rather odd, unkempt and roughly dressed character picked up at the C. and O. depot at midnight last night and lodged in jail. He had attracted some attention in a saloon early in the evening. Later he was seen on the street by some of the Deputy Marshals and given fifteen minutes to get out of town. He went but soon returned.

He had every appearance of a moneyless tramp, but when searched there was found tied up in an old dirty handkerchief $244.60. A charge of loafing was placed against him, but he was let off this morning with the payment of the station house fees. He claimed Wytheville, Jackson County, W. Va., as his home, and said he had been engaged in the peddling business.

Want Robert Farrell Pardon.

A Frankfort correspondent says: "A delegation of members of the Senate and some gentlemen of local prominence are making a strong plea to Lieutenant Governor Alford for a pardon of Robert Farrell, the Mason County 'turfman,' who killed Thomas Calvert. Farrell is in for life."

SUBJECTS at the Christian Church Sunday: 11 a. m., "The Letter Killers"; 8 p. m., "The Need of Our Times." All are made welcome. The spirit of the age is weighing the church and estimating its value as a character builder.

ERASTUS B. CAKE, Pastor.

The Ladies.

The pleasant effect and perfect safety with which ladies may use the California liquid laxative, Syrup of Figs, under all conditions, makes it their favorite remedy. To get the true and genuine article, look for the name of the California Syrup Co., printed near the bottom of the package.

Real Estate Transfers.

John T. Sartain and wife to William I. Vaughn, 53 acres of land of Cabin Creek; consideration.....	$ 400.00
Jane L. Atkinson to A. H. Thompson and W. B. McAtee, the property known as the "Calhoun & Atkinson Plow Factory" on Front street, west of Wall; consideration.....	2,250.00

THE topics for presentation at the M. E. Church to-morrow are as follows: 11 a. m., "Friendship;" 7:45 p. m., "Christ the Head of the Church." Epworth League 6:45 p. m., topic, "Home Missions or the Heathen at Our Door." All are invited. You are welcome.

QUESTION? ANSWER!

We are asked by merchants of our city (not in the Clothing trade) that understand values, why we sell the Suits we advertised this week at the ridiculous price of $15 when they are dirt cheap at $25. Our answer is that the patronage we have been favored with for many years deserves some gratitude on our part, and having secured this lot of goods at a price that presents the opportunity to demonstrate to our customers that we do feel grateful for their long-continued favors, we give them the advantage of this purchase. Moreover, we are proud that we are enabled to sell you a Suit of Clothes for $15.00 that if you did find one like it in any other house in the State (and this we doubt) you would have to pay from $25.00 to $35.00 for it.

GENTLEMEN,

don't let the opportunity slip by to secure one of them. We assure you, from the manner they are gobbled up by people who know a good thing when they see it, they won't last long. Respectfully,

HECHINGER & CO., THE ONE PRICE CLOTHIERS, ODDFELLOWS' HALL.

GOT THE LIQUOR,

But it Required Scheming to Secure it.
An Incident in the Life of the Late Gen. Beauregard.

The late General Beauregard and R. B. Forman, Esq., of New Orleans, were very intimate, and, a good many years after the war, were in Virginia on a hunting excursion. The General, though very temperate in all respects, yet on account of fatigue, etc., he thought a good drink of liquor would be of service to him, and so expressed himself to his friend Forman, asking him if he thought it possible to get such a thing in the mountains, where they were hunting. The latter remembered having heard of an illicit distillery somewhere in the neighborhood, and replied that he thought they could find it. The prospect made the General all the drier, and spitting and sputtering he remarked that he never was so dry in his life. They were not long in finding the place, and calling out, an old lady appeared at the door and demanded their wishes. Mr. F. told her his friend General Beauregard was very tired and thirsty, and asked if she couldn't let him have some whisky. The old lady at once concluded they were revenue officers, and stoutly denied having anything of the kind on the place, saying her husband was just home from the penitentiary and her son had just been sent there on account of whisky, and now they were after her. They had hard work to convince her they were not officers of the government, but finally succeeded, and told her she need not let them see her handle the liquor, but to place it on a stump, indicating one some distance from the house, and that they would ride off and coming back, would take it and leave a dollar in its stead.

Sure enough, after getting out of sight and sound for a while, and returning to the stump they found a measure containing a liquid the color of water, and upon the General eagerly taking it up and noticing the color, with disappointment plainly depicted in his countenance, he cried out: "Forman, the old woman has beaten us at last; she has only given us water," but upon the latter assuring him that that was the color of new whisky, he drank a hearty swig of it, and with a broad smile pronounced it the finest article he had ever tasted.

Leaving the money on the stump they rode off, the General expressing himself as feeling much better for the draught.

THOMAS CLAIRE.

A Native of Washington Passes Away at Lexington After a Linger- ing Illness.

Thomas Claire, whose critical illness has been mentioned in the BULLETIN on several occasions, died Thursday morning at his home in Lexington. He was a sufferer from rheumatism and dropsy, and had been ill a long time.

Deceased was a native of Washington, this county, and was thirty-six years of age, and unmarried.

His remains were brought here yesterday morning and were taken direct from the depot to Washington for interment. He had been a member of the Lexington police force for several years, and three of his brother officers, Messrs. Ford, Reagan and DeLaney, accompanied the remains to their last resting place.

Says the Lexington Transcript: "The floral designs presented by his friends were both numerous and beautiful, but the prettiest of them all was the one presented by Chief Lushy and his force, the dead officer's true friends. It was made after the shape of the police badge which in life he wore, a star of pink and white roses upon which were mounted the words 'Lexington Police, No. 6.' Mr. Claire had been in the service for five years, and during that period he was never known to shirk his duty. His friends were many and his enemies none, and as one of his brother officers remarked as he heard the sad news: 'A better officer than he never wore the uniform.'"

BANK FAILURE.*Doors and Shutters Closed Up and No Public Statement Made.

PAULDING, O., June 3.—Potters' bank, the oldest bank in Paulding county and heretofore considered one of the safest, has closed its doors. The bank was established in 1874, and has always done a large banking business. The bank has also done a large business loaning money on land in this county. Information as to the cause of the assignment is hard to get. President Ayers and Vice President Potter had nothing to say, and Cashier Sponsler was not to be found. The only things learned were that it had assigned to J. B. Brodnix, and that a large number of business men here were depositors.

Several township treasurers were caught for many thousand dollars, and the whole town will suffer from the failure. Complaint is made that the officials received money up to 4 o'clock, the closing hour the previous evening, when it must have been known that the bank was insolvent. Following as it does on the heels of the assignment of M. C. Powell, the oldest and largest dry goods house in the county, it practically brings business to a standstill in Paulding. Other firms will suffer, but will probably be able to pull through.

Boarding House Tragedy.

COLUMBUS, O., June 3.—Ralph Drake, a prominent young man, shot and instantly killed Mrs. Ida Ward, after which he tried to kill himself, but was not successful. The tragedy occurred at a boardinghouse kept by George Plymate. Guilty love is the supposed cause of the tragedy.

KNOWLEDGE

Brings comfort and improvement and tends to personal enjoyment when rightly used. The many, who live better than others and enjoy life more, with less expenditure, by more promptly adapting the world's best products to the needs of physical being, will attest the value to health of the pure liquid laxative principles embraced in the remedy, Syrup of Figs.

Its excellence is due to its presenting in the form most acceptable and pleasant to the taste, the refreshing and truly beneficial properties of a perfect laxative; effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers and permanently curing constipation. It has given satisfaction to millions and met with the approval of the medical profession, because it acts on the kidneys, Liver and Bowels without weakening them and it is perfectly free from every objectionable substance.

Syrup of Figs is for sale by all druggists in 50c and $1 bottles, but it is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, whose name is printed on every package, also the name, Syrup of Figs, and being well informed, you will not accept any substitute if offered.
